“I am proud to announce my candidacy for Superior Court Judge in DeKalb County Division 7. The incumbent has decided not to seek re-election. As a long-time resident of DeKalb County, I have enjoyed being an active member of our community, working tirelessly to make it safer, fair and welcoming for all. I look forward to meeting with you in your homes and communities, listening and discussing ways we can make the Superior Court work justly.” - Tunde

Tunde Akinyele is a respected attorney, advocate and jurist in DeKalb County. He has resided in DeKalb County for nearly two decades. Tunde is running for Superior Court Judge because he is passionate about working in the court system to reduce recidivism, especially among our youth. Tunde is also committed to supporting adequate rehabilitation programs that can better prepare those who have paid their debt to society to re-enter the community successfully. Tunde will be a judge that is respectful, making decisions based on facts, fairness and merit.

Qualified to Serve

Tunde is a Municipal Court Chief Judge in Lithonia. He is also a Designated Judge in DeKalb State Court. He has served as a Senior Assistant District Attorney and Assistant Solicitor General in DeKalb County. Tunde is currently the owner of a private practice law firm.
